

Training on Quality Requirements for Australian Pathology Laboratories Performing Infectious Diseases Testing

Purpose

To introduce and review pertinent topics relating to the quality requirements for medical laboratory testing that would inform laboratory management, quality systems and clinical decision-making to support good patient outcomes.

Who should attend?

Pathologists, Pathology registrars and Medical Scientists based at hospitals and pathology laboratories across Australia.

Fees

AUD $80 excluding GST for each session, or $350 excluding GST for all 5 sessions.

Training structure and dates

- 1 Overview of quality requirements for pathology and laboratory accreditation, 11 May 2023.
- 2 Introduction to in-vitro diagnostics (IVDs), 25 May 2023.
- 3 An overview of serology and NAT methods, 08 June 2023.
- 4 Methods for monitoring test results: External Quality Assessment Schemes (EQAS), 22 June 2023.
- 5 Methods for monitoring test results: Quality Control (QC), 06 July 2023.

For the full list of training structures, session times and further details, scan here:

